

For immediate release

September 17, 2010

*Students from the Institute of Design:
The Harry Callahan and Aaron Siskind Years, 1946 to 1971*

September 25th – October 30th, 2010
Opening: Saturday, September 25, 4 - 6 pm

Higher Pictures presents Students from the Institute of Design: During the Harry Callahan and Aaron Siskind Years, 1946 to 1971. The exhibition consists of over thirty vintage works dating from 1946 to 1971 by accomplished and newly discovered artists who studied with Harry Callahan and/or Aaron Siskind at the influential and highly regarded Institute of Design in Chicago.

The commonality and allure in these works signify the materialization of the abstract, modes of experimentation and the discovery of potential.

Artists in the exhibition include:

Altschuler, Franz	Kowal, Cal
Barrow, Thomas	(Dorr) Lea, Mary Ann
Blair, James P.	Larson, William
Blondeau, Barbara	Leinwohl, Stef
Cohen, Alan	Lewandowski, Leon
Connor, Linda	Metzker, Ray K.
Crane, Barbara	Newman, Marvin E.
Field, Lois	Nickel, Richard
Hale, Steve	Porett, Thomas
Heyl, Kurt	Rago, Thomas
Ishimoto, Yasuhiro	Steinhauser, Judith
Jachna, Joseph D.	Stiegler, Robert
Josephson, Kenneth	Swedlund, Charles A.
Kendall, Jean	Tanner, Robert
Knudtson, Thomas	Traub, Charles H.

For further information contact Kim Bourus at 212.249.6100.

This exhibition is organized in association with Stephen Daiter Gallery, Chicago.